			ease 2010/01/19 : CIA-RDP82-00457R007700200013-8
		CLASSIFICATION	SEQUET-COMMODI/IS OF MOTALE
CQUN	rry	Germany (Soviet Zone)	REPORT
TOPIC	-	Military Information fr	on Dresden.
		· 1410年14月1日 - 1411年	155
VALU	IATION		PLACE OBTAINED 25X1
ን ልፐና" (OF COI	NTENT
	OBTAIN		DATE PREPARED_ 20 April 1951
			DATE PREPARED.
	RENCES 3
PAGES	`	ENCLOSURES (NO.	& TYPE)
REMAJ	RKS	Docum This is UNEVALUATE	ED Information
		No Change In Glass. Declassified	TO STATE OF THE ST
		Class. Changed To: TS S
		Auth.: HR 70-2 Date: 3 9972 By	25X
			Address of the control of the contro
	1.	Kaserne.	the Adolf Hitler
		of Colonel Pushky, (fnu	quartered 880 troops under the command or coroner tanky, (in	10.
		included machine gun un	The units in the installation its and a signal platoon of about 60 men. Light and
		1	TTELL THE THE PARTY OF THE PART
		room under the care of	nly of German origin, were stored in the ordnance room under the care of	nly of German origin, were stored in the ordnarce Senior Lieutenant Nik, (fnu).
		room under the care of installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3	Ally of German origin, were stored in the ordnar.ce Senior Lieutenant Nik, (fmu). the duty routine at the daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25X1 a.m., inspection by a first sergent at 7:30 a.m.
		noom under the care of installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine	The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25X1 of a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., gun drill during the forenoon, mess call at 3 p.m., and until night duty, which allegedly began as late as issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri	The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25X1 a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., od until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered room under the care of Installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the ev	mly of German origin, were stored in the ordnance Senior Lieutenant Nik, (fmm). the duty routine at the The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25X1 a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., gun drill during the forenoon, mess call at 3 p.m., and until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were renings. All German employees at the barracks were
		room under the care of installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the ev under continuous superv	The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25X1 a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., of gun drill during the forenoon, mess call at 3 p.m., and until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were
	2.	issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the evunder continuous superwwhen entering or leaving Between 23 February and	mly of German origin, were stored in the ordnance Senior Lieutenant Nik, (fmm). the duty routine at the the daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., gun drill during the forencon, mess call at 3 p.m., od until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were renings. All German employees at the barracks were rision by Soviet guards and were completely searched ag the installation. (1)
	2.	issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the evunder continuous superwwhen entering or leaving Between 23 February and epaulets, some with mot	mly of German origin, were stored in the ordnance Senior Lieutenant Nik, (fmm). the duty routine at the the duty routine at the daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25×1 a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., and define the forencon, mess call at 3 p.m., and until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were remings. All German employees at the barracks were rision by Soviet guards and were completely searched at the installation. (1) 15 March 1951, troops wearing red-bordered black for transport insignia, were observed for the first.
	2.	installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the ev under continuous superv when entering or leavin Between 23 February and epaulets, some with mot time in the Adolf Hitle and most of the troops	mly of German origin, were stored in the ordnance Senior Lieutenant Nik, (fmu). the duty routine at $\frac{1}{25}\times 1$ The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25\times 1$ $\frac{1}{25}\times 2$ $\frac{1}{25}
	2.	installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the ev under continuous superv when entering or leavin Between 23 February and epaulets, some with mot time in the Adolf Hitle and most of the troops	mly of German origin, were stored in the ordnance Senior Lieutenant Nik, (fmm). the duty routine at the daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25×1 a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., gun drill during the forenoon, mess call at 3 p.m., od until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were renings. All German employees at the barracks were rision by Soviet guards and were completely searched at the installation. (1) 15 March 1951, troops wearing red-bordered black for transport insignia, were observed for the first reaserme. Their number was estimated at about 1,800 were very young. Groups of not larger than 30 soldiers and from the installation. Apparently, no training was
	2.	Installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the ev under continuous superv when entering or leavin Between 23 February and epaulets, some with mot time in the Adolf Hitle and most of the troops were seen marching to a	mly of German origin, were stored in the ordnance Senior Lieutenant Nik, (fmm). the duty routine at the the duty routine at the the daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 to a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., gun drill during the forencon, mess call at 3 p.m., od until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were renings. All German employees at the barracks were rision by Soviet guards and were completely searched ag the installation. (1) 15 March 1951, troops wearing red-bordered black for transport insignia, were observed for the first r Kaserne. Their number was estimated at about 1,800 were very young. Groups of not larger than 30 soldiers and from the installation. Apparently, no training were
		issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the evunder continuous supervivolen entering or leaving Between 28 February and epaulets, some with mot time in the Adolf Hitle and most of the troops were seen marching to a given in the billeting.	mly of German origin, were stored in the ordnance Senior Lieutenant Nik, (fmm). the duty routine at the the duty routine at the daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., a gun drill during the forenoon, mess call at 3 p.m., and until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were remings. All German employees at the barracks were dision by Soviet guards and were completely searched at the installation. (1) 15 March 1951, troops wearing red-bordered black for transport insignia, were observed for the first researched. Their number was estimated at about 1,800 were very young. Groups of not larger than 30 soldiers and from the installation. Apparently, no training were
		installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the ev under continuous superv when entering or leavin Between 23 February and epaulets, some with mot time in the Adolf Hitle and most of the troops were seen marching to a given in the billeting	The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 The daily routine at 4 box The daily routine at 5 box The daily routine at 7 box The
	3.	installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the ev under continuous superv when entering or leavin Between 23 February and epaulets, some with mot time in the Adolf Hitle and most of the troops were seen marching to a given in the billeting No changes were observe vehicles seen red-bordered black epau	senior Lieutenant Nik, (fnu). The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., of gun drill during the forencon, mess call at 3 p.m., and until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were remings. All German employees at the barracks were resisted by Soviet guards and were completely searched by the installation. (1) 15 March 1951, troops wearing red-bordered black for transport insignia, were observed for the first by Kaserne. Their number was estimated at about 1,800 were very young. Groups of not larger than 30 soldiers area. din the occupation of the Adolf Hitler Kaserne. Matanallation. Apparently, no training was area. driven by soldiers who were lets without branch-of-service insignia. (1)
	3.	issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the evunder continuous superv when entering or leaving Between 23 February and epaulets, some with mot time in the Adolf Hitle and most of the troops were seen marching to a given in the billeting. No changes were observe vehicles seen red-bordered black epau	senior Lieutenant Nik, (fnu). The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 to a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., gun drill during the forencen, mess call at 3 p.m., od until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were reinings. All German employees at the barracks were rision by Soviet guards and were completely searched at the installation. (1) 15 March 1951, troops wearing red-bordered black for transport insignia, were observed for the first or Kaserne. Their number was estimated at about 1,800 were very young. Groups of not larger than 30 soldiers and from the installation. Apparently, no training was area. driven by soldiers who were lets without branch-of-service insignia. (1)
	3.	Installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the ev under continuous superv when entering or leavin Between 23 February and epaulets, some with mot time in the Adolf Hitle and most of the troops were seen marching to a given in the billeting No changes were observe vehicles seen Ted-bordered black epau No change in the occupa The installation still including a few with si	The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25×1 O a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., gun drill during the forenoon, mess call at 3 p.m., od until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were renings. All German employees at the barracks were rision by Soviet guards and were completely searched ag the installation. (1) I 15 March 1951, troops wearing red-bordered black for transport insignia, were observed for the first or Kaserne. Their number was estimated at about 1,800 were very young. Groups of not larger than 30 soldiers area. driven by soldiers who wore lets without branch-of-service insignia. (1) tion of the Adolf Hitler Kaserne was observed on 10 March quartered troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets, gmal insignia. There was a dispreparation stally large.
	3.	Installation very lax. issue of rations at 6:3 close order and machine followed by a rest peri 10 p.m. black epaulets leaving fully lighted in the ev under continuous superv when entering or leavin Between 23 February and epaulets, some with mot time in the Adolf Hitle and most of the troops were seen marching to a given in the billeting No changes were observe vehicles seen Ted-bordered black epau No change in the occupa The installation still including a few with si	senior Lieutenant Nik, (fnu). The daily routine provided for reveille at 6 a.25%1 to a.m., inspection by a first sergeant at 7:30 a.m., gun drill during the forencen, mess call at 3 p.m., od until night duty, which allegedly began as late as a unit of 1 NCO and 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered the installation one day at 7 p.m. All barracks were reinings. All German employees at the barracks were rision by Soviet guards and were completely searched at the installation. (1) 15 March 1951, troops wearing red-bordered black for transport insignia, were observed for the first or Kaserne. Their number was estimated at about 1,800 were very young. Groups of not larger than 30 soldiers and from the installation. Apparently, no training was area. din the occupation of the Adolf Hitler Kaserne was observed on 10 Wentleton of the Adolf Hitler K

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

CONFIDENTIAL

	SECRET-CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY	25 X 1 2
	seen marching to the training area. (1)
5.	The Grenadier Kaserne quartered about 2,500 troops; most of them were young and they wore red-bordered black epaulets with a silver bomb insignia, with the bomb opening toward the top. The barracks usually were fully lighted after sundown. Several groups, each made up of 48 soldiers, wearing the bomb insignia were observed. A total of 350 officers, including 35 field-grade officers with rank as high as colonel, and about 150 enlisted men were seen passing through the barracks gate on Dr. Kurt Fischerstrasse during and trucks The bound of 15 March Gradan and trucks Were seen at the installation. (2)	25 X 1
٤.		25X1
O.	Motor vehicles seen at the former German 100th Grenadier Regt Kaserne on 13 and 14 March red-bordered green epaulets soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets; and which wore black-bordered blue epaulets with air force insignia. (2)	25X1
7.	On 5 March, a convoy of 30 trucks, coming from the direction of Koenigsbrueck and filled to capacity by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, moved through Dresden. The convoy passed along Koenigsbrueckerstrasse and Glacisstrasse and proceeded toward the Elbe River. Twenty-six of the trucks towed AT Luns and four towed field kitchens
8.	The Kocnig Georg Kaserne quartered troops who were predominantly young and wore red-bordered black epaulets; some had tank insignia. Forty officers and NCOs wearing red-bordered black epaulets arrived by streetcar at the installation on h March. Also, a unit of 35 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying rifles was seen parching into the installation.	25 X 1
9.	The billeting area of the Koenig Georg Kaserne, which includes the habitable buildings of the Koenig Albert Kaserne, quartered 800 to 1,000 troops equipped with AT guns and mortars. A unit of 52 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank insignis, and a truck towing an AT gun of about 62 mm were observed at the installation. about nine months ago, the northern section of the billeting area housed a Soviet Army repair shop which had the numerical designation 100 and which was engaged in the repair of wheeled vehicles.	25X1
.0.	On 13 and 14 March, it was observed that a troop unit was still quartered at the Maschinengewehr Kaserne; its personnel wore red-bordered black epaulets and were equipped with AT_guns. Ninety troops were seen drilling and 46 soldiers engaged in athletic activities on 14 March.
1.	The Maschinengewehr Kaserne quartered troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some had artillery or signal insignia. Most of the troops were private first class and NCOs. Small units were seen receiving basic field training. Three light artillery pieces were observed with them. (5)
2.	Between 16 February and 3 March, the Hermann Goering Kaserne in Dresden- Klotzsche quartered 1,500 to 2,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank insignia. The barracks buildings were fully lighted during the

SECRET-CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY

SECRET-CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY

CONFIDENTIAL